SOUNDTRACK FOR A REVOLUTION

A star-studded look at the civil rights movement through its music

- An Official Selection at the Tribeca and Cannes Film Festivals, the film was Shortlisted for an Academy Award®, runs theatrically through 2010 and airs on PBS's American Experience in Feb. 2011.
- Executive produced by Danny Glover, SOUNDTRACK FOR A REVOLUTION features original performances by superstars John Legend, Wyclef Jean, Joss Stone, The Roots, Blind Boys of Alabama, Mary Mary, Richie Havens, Anthony Hamilton and Angie Stone.
- Incredible archival footage of pivotal civil rights moments is blended with powerful interviews with those who were there, including Harry Belafonte, Julian Bond, Congressman John Lewis and Ambassador Andrew Young.
- Marketing/PR outreach will leverage exclusive clips and access to Danny Glover for coverage in music, black interest, faith-based and history outlets, along with R&B radio promotion.

SYNOPSIS SOUNDTRACK FOR A REVOLUTION tells the story of the American civil rights movement through its powerful music—the freedom songs protesters sang on picket lines, in mass meetings, in paddy wagons, and in jail cells as they fought for justice and equality. The film features new performances of the freedom songs by top artists, including John Legend, Joss Stone, Wyclef Jean, and The Roots; riveting archival footage; and interviews with civil rights foot soldiers and leaders, including Congressman John Lewis, Harry Belafonte, Julian Bond, and Ambassador Andrew Young.
