SYNOPSIS Beginning with Allen's childhood and his first professional gigs as a teen — furnishing jokes for comics and publicists —WOODY ALLEN: A DOCUMENTARY chronicles the trajectory and longevity of Allen's career: from his work in the 1950s-1960s as a TV scribe for Sid Caesar, standup comedian and frequent TV talk show guest, to a writer-director averaging one film-per-year for more than 40 years. Director Bob Weide covers Allen's earliest film work in Take the Money and Run, Bananas, Sleeper, and Love and Death; frequent Oscar® favorites such as Annie Hall, Manhattan, Zelig, Broadway Danny Rose, Purple Rose of Cairo, Crimes and Misdemeanors, Husbands & Wives, Bullets Over Broadway, and Mighty Aphrodite; and his recent globetrotting phase with Match Point, Vicky Cristina Barcelona, and this year's box-office smash Midnight in Paris.

WOODY ALLEN: A DOCUMENTARY

An unprecedented look at the screen legend's career...in his own words

- Two-part broadcast premiere as a part of PBS' award-winning American Masters' 25th season on November 20-21, 2011.
- Directed by Emmy®-winning and Oscar®-nominated director and producer of Curb Your Enthusiasm, Robert Weide.
- The first film in which the famously shy Allen discusses his brilliant body of work, including such classics as Annie Hall and Manhattan.
- In addition to the unprecedented access granted to Allen, the film also features interviews with such stars as Diane Keaton, Sean Penn, Mira Sorvino, Larry David, Scarlett Johansson and Owen Wilson, as well as Martin Scorsese.
- Two-disc collectible set to include 30 minutes of bonus, including a presumed-lost, never-before-seen deleted scene from Everything You Always Wanted to Know About Sex.
- Allen continues to wow audiences, with his most recent film Midnight in Paris garnering Oscar® buzz and becoming his highest-grossing film to date ($45MM domestic).
- Timed to release before Oscars® and for Valentine's Day—a film lover's valentine!
- Marketing and PR outreach to target cinephiles, especially Allen's considerable fan base, leveraging access to award-winning director and available talent.
