

SPECIAL 2-DISC COLLECTOR'S EDITION

THE WILD PARROTS OF TELEGRAPH HILL

Art Not Final

A celebration of urban wilderness, Docurama's bestseller is back in a special 2-disc set

Packed with romance, comedy and a surprise ending that "makes you feel like you could fly out of the theater" (San Jose Mercury News), this wonderful film tells the true story of a local bohemian, Mark Bittner and his remarkable relationship with a flock of wild parrots. Following the ups-and-downs of these wild birds within the green nooks of San Francisco, Bittner befriends, feeds and names the members of the flock.

This special collector's edition includes a fully illustrated companion booklet with an excerpt of Mark Bittner's eponymous best selling book, as well as a bonus disc loaded with over 100 minutes of new material that include updates on the San Francisco flock, Mark Bittner, and Judy Irving; a music video "Ballad of the Brooklyn Parrots;" two new films by director Judy Irving plus much, much more.

- Packaged in an elegant, hard cover case, this 2-disc collector's version contains over 100 minutes of parrot updates, plus an illustrated companion booklet featuring writings from Mark Bittner and exclusive photos.
- With a box office gross of over $3 million, THE WILD PARROTS OF TELEGRAPH HILL still ranks among the most successful theatrical documentaries of all time.
- With play dates in 450+ markets, including the top 50 U.S. metro areas and all 50 states (including Alaska and Hawaii), the film has attained a high level of title recognition among consumers.

Packed with over 100 minutes of extras including:
