

Harlan Ellison

Dreams With Sharp Teeth

"A nasty little dream come true."

— The New Yorker

An intimate portrait of one of America's greatest— and most controversial—living writers

Crackling with infectious energy, DREAMS WITH SHARP TEETH pays homage to the dark prince of American letters, Harlan Ellison. Master of his craft, this remarkable talent has heroically produced 75 books and more than 1,700 classics of fiction and non-fiction, including the most popular Star Trek episode and award-winning short stories.

Drawing on over 25 years of exclusive video footage, this rich film captures the essence of Ellison—a wildly imaginative writer, flame-tongued provocateur, and unholy fusion of Lenny Bruce and Mark Twain. Whether a die-hard Ellison fan or someone tragically uninitiated, DREAMS WITH SHARP TEETH will amuse, inspire, infuriate, and edify.

- From the producer of Grizzly Man, DREAMS WITH SHARP TEETH premieres on the Sundance Channel May 25, 2009, one day before the DVD release.
- Since 1955, Harlan Ellison has won countless awards and published 75 books and more than 1,700 stories and articles in 40 languages, along with legendary episodes for television (Star Trek, The Outer Limits).
- Timed to release the day before Harlan's 75th birthday.
- Acclaim for the film includes raves from The New Yorker and Salon.
- Celebrity fans of Ellison's include Howard Stern, Stephen Colbert, Bill Maher, Stephen King, Lewis Black, and Craig Ferguson.
