

"A piercingly poignant then-and-now portrait...
so palpable it puts a lump in your throat."

—The New York Times

THE SAME RIVER TWICE

A film by Robb Moss

An audience favorite at Sundance and nominated for an Independent Spirit Award, THE SAME RIVER TWICE has been highly acclaimed as "a [four-star] masterpiece" (Chicago Reader). Cutting between 1978 footage of his fellow whitewater river guides—who lived a communal, often naked, live-in-the-moment existence—and the complex realities of their adulthood today, award-winning filmmaker Robb Moss' "piercingly poignant" (The New York Times) mosaic travels the road from peyote to Prozac, creating a compelling portrait of cultural metamorphosis.

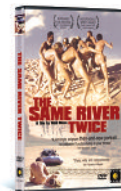

- A film festival standout, THE SAME RIVER TWICE premiered at the Sundance Film Festival in 2003.
- Sundance Channel television premiere in 2005.
- Theatrical playdates in over 80 cities.
- A film with tremendous critical acclaim across the board.
- Recipient of the Best Feature Documentary at Nashville Independent Film Festival, Audience Award at the Chicago International Documentary Film Festival, and Best Documentary at the Sidewalk Moving Picture Festival.
- From renowned and critically acclaimed filmmaker Robb Moss.
