WHO ARE THE DEBOLTS?

AND WHY DO THEY HAVE NINETEEN KIDS?

The classic Academy Award®-winning tribute to an extraordinary family

The astonishing documentary classic WHO ARE THE DEBOLTS? takes an intimate look at one extraordinary family that tackles adversity with compassion and joy.

Bob and Dorothy DeBolt open their hearts and home to thirteen disabled children from all over the world who heroically belie the stereotype of the handicapped. What results is an amazing mix of diversity: they've taken in victims of the Vietnam War, a blind American boy, and a black girl born without limbs. Following their lives over the course of a year, director John Korty skillfully captures the boundless possibility of the individual human will and the importance of family and friendship. With its joyful, uplifting message, WHO ARE THE DEBOLTS? will continue to stand the test of time.
